Autumn Newsletter
Hello and welcome...

to our Autumn Newsletter.
We’re thrilled to share our latest Jessie May news, updates and events for your diary.

I hope you have all had a wonderful summer! We have had a very busy summer, and are hugely thankful to everyone who has supported Jessie May and attended the various fundraising events we have hosted, or been a part of, over the last few months.

Jessie May is now supporting a total of 141 life limited children across our service area, and 47 bereaved families. We are passionate about offering this continuity of care to these families, but inevitably, as a charity, we rely heavily on donations and support to ensure we can continue to do so.

We cannot ignore there is an unmet need for our services, and that there are many life limited children in our service area who are not currently being supported. Our mission is to ensure every voice is heard, every family is helped, and every terminally ill child has the best possible quality of life. We have a growing caseload and are working rigorously to ensure we are raising enough money to welcome each and every child to the Jessie May family.

One way we are working to raise these vital funds is by taking part in the national match-funding campaign The Big Give Christmas Challenge! This is an extremely exciting fundraising campaign which takes place at the end of November – you’ll hear more about this later in the newsletter.

You’ll also hear from one of the families Jessie May is currently supporting, and Annette, one of our nurses who visits 11 month old Phoenix.

As always, thanks to all our supporters, and if you’d like any information about our charity, please do get in touch.

Chris Roys
CEO of Jessie May
Phoenix is 11 months old and lives in Swindon with his mum Clare, dad Damien and 9 year old sister Faye.

When Clare was pregnant with Phoenix, she found out during her 20 week scan that something wasn’t quite right. During another scan, two days later, doctors confirmed he had Hypoplastic Left Heart Syndrome (HLHS). This means Phoenix would be born with a single ventricle instead of two, and that the left side of his heart would not form correctly. He would suffer from a birth defect which affects normal blood flow through the heart and mean the right side of his heart would have to work twice as hard.

At first, Clare and Damien were told it was unlikely Phoenix would live for very long, but a later prognosis found while he was life limited, he could live much longer than they feared. Phoenix was born through a planned induced labour in hospital and was taken straight to the NICU (Neonatal Intensive Care Unit) where he stayed for the first 6 weeks of his life. He had his first open heart operation at 4 days old, and would later go on to have 3 more, alongside other operations.

After his first surgery, Phoenix had a heart attack and had to be put on a life machine, where he then suffered from a stroke. While Phoenix recovered and was able to go home for 5 weeks, he then had to spend 6 months in and out of hospital for more open heart surgery. Phoenix is now happy at home with his family but has to take medication 13 times a day, and is pump-fed milk and given oxygen overnight.

Clare was referred to Jessie May in hospital and now has Jessie May nurses visit their home offering respite care twice a month.

Clare said: “We chose the name Phoenix mainly because we just wanted something different that would stand out. That was before we knew about his condition – and it now seems very fitting! It’s very optimistic, just like him.

Phoenix’s sister Faye likes to help out at home, and always offers to change her brother’s nappies! She has had to take on some very important responsibilities since Phoenix was born, and her parents are very proud to see her act as a young carer to help support her younger brother.

Damien said: “When Phoenix was first born, we had some very difficult and traumatic times, when we were frequently told he might not make it through the night. Now we are back home and he’s in far better health, although he’s got some problems with his lungs, but it’s become the norm – with the help of Jessie May. We’re taking every day as it comes. The surgery Phoenix has undergone is extremely complicated but relatively new too, so there aren’t many recent or accurate statistics to suggest his outlook, but we obviously hope for the best. He’s an amazing boy who loves life.”

Jessie May Nurse Annette said: “During our visits we have lots of fun! We play with some of Phoenix’s favourite toys, go out for walks and have cuddles. This time is gratefully received by the family as it gives Mum a chance to have a break from Phoenix’s demanding daily routine of tube feeding, regular medications and the constant supervision he requires due the unpredictability of his health condition which leaves Mum with little opportunity to get on with daily tasks.”

Family Fun with Jessie May
A roaring success at Avon Valley Adventure and Wildlife Park!
Thanks to the team at Avon Valley Adventure & Wildlife Park for inviting us down for our Jessie May Families’ Fun Day! We had an incredible time meeting the animals and exploring the wildlife. Days out like these mean we can bring our families together and create treasured memories with the children we support. Huge thanks to everyone at the park for making it such a special day.

Messy Fun Under the Sea!
Jessie May children came together during two respite days we held at the Woodside Family Centre over the summer. Our theme for the days was ‘Under the Sea’ and we all had oceans of fun! We got crafty and made jellyfish, hunted for animals on a fun sealife trail, relaxed in the sensory room and ended the days singing songs! Thanks to all our volunteers who came along to help out on the days including Sophie and Liz from David Wilson Homes, Sandy from Parmenion UK, Tom from CIBC and Karen from Manheim. We all had a whale of a time!

Picnic in the Park
Our Swindon and Wiltshire team also hosted a family day at Lydiard Park in Swindon over the summer. Jessie May Families enjoyed a picnic in the sunshine as well as lots of fun and games, including Giant Jenga, bubble machines and badminton!
DOUBLE your Difference with The Big Give!

This November Jessie May is taking part in the Big Give Christmas Challenge, a national match-funding campaign that doubles each donation made to Jessie May!

The Big Give Christmas Challenge will help Jessie May raise the funds needed to accept and set up an additional eleven children onto our caseload this year. Eleven more families that we can provide a much-needed break from their caring responsibilities, help their terminally ill child make the most of their short lives, and support with end of life care. We need to raise our target of £23,100 to do this.

The Big Give Christmas Challenge runs from 12pm Tuesday 27th November until 12pm Tuesday 4th December.

All you need to do is spread the news Jessie May is taking part, and help us raise money during The Big Give week when your donation will be worth double! If we can raise £11,550 during The Big Give – it will automatically be doubled to meet our target!

Supporters must donate to Jessie May through The Big Give website for donations to be match funded. So if you’re taking part in The Big Eat – please, if possible donate your funds during The Big Give week to ensure your money is doubled!

In Memory

Jessica May Purrington’s parents are the whole reason our charity exists. They set up the charity in 1994 following their daughter’s death, to ensure other life limited children are given support in their homes, and the choice to die at home when that time comes.

Precious Memories

We have created a special online book for Jessie May bereaved families, as a place to share and celebrate their memories with their loved ones. Families can share stories through words, photos and videos in The Memory Book, and use it as a special place to remember their loved ones. We hope families feel they can use the Memory Book to express their feelings and remember those special moments with the ones they love.

COMMUNITY STARS

Huge thanks to all our community volunteers and supporters who generously give up their time to help raise money for, and awareness of, Jessie May! We’re so touched to see so many communities come together in aid of our charity. Pubs, social groups, WIs, schools – individuals! – and so many more continue to help raise money for the local terminally ill children our nurses support. You are all incredible!

Thank you...

- to our incredible supporter David Bailey who raised money for Jessie May through a sponsored cycle ride from Lands End to John O’Groat with his friend Joe. Unfortunately David suffered an injury during the ride but has still rallied donations for our charity – what a star!

- to our ultra-marathon runner and supporter Richard Lindsay who just keeps running to raise money for Jessie May.

- to the Swindon Lions who travelled around the town bucket collecting in the rain and the snow to raise money for Jessie May! Thanks to the Lions for supporting us through their Christmas Sleigh.

- to Bromley Heath WI for a fantastic year of support with singing, fetes and fundraising.

- to the Swindon student Jessie May Whitaker for raising money for our charity through a sponsored walk with her boyfriend Toby - what a fitting name for a Jessie May supporter!

- to Worle Lions Club for supporting Jessie May over the summer with their cream tea event.

- to Hawkesbury Farm Tractor Fest for organising a brilliant vintage tractor rally in aid of Jessie May.

- to Bradley and Rivers Care Home for hosting B-Fest in aid of Jessie May.

- to Crossways Junior School who held a ‘Purple and Yellow Day’ fundraiser for Jessie May.

- to The Swindon & Wiltshire Phoenix Rotary Swindon for the use of their Canal Boats for Jessie May Swindon & Wiltshire families.

- to The Bank Tavern in Bristol for hosting their Summer Fete in support of Jessie May.

- to Cotham School for all their hard fundraising efforts.

- to the Swindon Lions who travelled around the town bucket collecting in the rain and the snow to raise money for Jessie May! Thanks to the Lions for supporting us through their Christmas Sleigh.

- to The People’s Grand Prix.

- to Bristol City Football Club for letting us collect on game day.

- to St. James’s Place Charitable Foundation who host this annual fun day with Jessie May, and also match-fund every penny made for our charities.

We all had a lovely time making our way around the track at Odd Down Cycle Circuit – some by foot, some by wheel – from wheelchairs to scooters! Thanks also to GLL for letting us take over the cycle circuit for the fundraising day!
